Subscribe or restore purchases

Revision 2026-11-03

Pick a plan or restore so Wrestling Timer unlocks on your Apple devices.

You need an active purchase or team license before the timers unlock. Prices come from the App Store on your device. This page does not list dollar amounts.

Subscribe

On iPad, the paywall is landscape and plans show side by side.

1. On first launch you see Subscribe to Wrestling Timer. Later, Settings can open Choose a plan.
2. One subscription unlocks every timer mode on iPhone, iPad, and Apple Watch.
3. Family Sharing is included. One purchase can cover your household.
4. Pick a plan row: Monthly, Annual, or Founders Lifetime (shown as Founders Lifetime Pass when the store name is not available).
5. Complete the Apple purchase prompts.
6. Optional: tap What's included to see the feature list.

By subscribing, you agree to the Terms of Use and Privacy Policy links on the paywall.

Restore purchases

1. On the paywall, tap Restore Purchases.
2. Sign in with the same Apple ID you used to buy, if Apple asks.
3. When access activates, the app continues past the paywall.

Team license (optional)

1. On the paywall, tap Sign in with Horton Press.

2. Sign in with your Horton Press Account.
3. If your organization assigned you a YourTeamManager Silver or YourTeamManager Gold team license, the app unlocks. You do not need a separate YourTeamManager account.

YourTeamManager coach tools in Settings are still Coming soon. Team license sign-in on the paywall works today when your org assigned a license.

On Apple Watch

If the Watch still shows a subscribe message after you buy, subscribe (or restore) on iPhone. The Watch note says: Subscribe on iPhone if purchase does not appear on your watch.
